

Parking and Directions

13th Annual Center for Circadian Biology Symposium – April 11-13, 2023
Scripps Seaside Forum (map), 8610 Kennel Way, La Jolla, CA 92037

**Please note there are construction delays in the area **Please plan accordingly to arrive on time **Attendees are strongly encouraged to walk or utilize rideshare or a shuttle – there is no parking at the venue and very limited street parking

Attendees staying at La Jolla Shores or other nearby hotels:

It is strongly recommended that you consider walking or taking the hotel shuttle if available. It takes approximately 15 min to walk to the venue <https://tinyurl.com/47nppn9x>

Off-Site Street Parking at the Seaside Forum:

Parking is not available at the Seaside Forum. There is off-site street parking available on La Jolla Shores Drive. Please note that this parking is extremely limited in the area and subject to availability. The Seaside Forum requests that Event attendees not park on nearby city streets nor at Kellogg Park, which are intended for use by neighborhood residents and beach visitors.

Faculty, Staff, or Students coming from campus – SIO Shuttle info:

<https://transportation.ucsd.edu/campus/shuttles/sio.html>